

Martyn Lawrence Bullard Hermitage

Martyn Lawrence Bullard's Hermitage mirrored tile takes its cues from 20th century design, yet remain true to ANN SACKS' handcraft by employing the art of 18th century mirror-making techniques to achieve the lustrous surfaces. The antiqued mirrored tiles are patterned with designs such as zebra and leopard, creating a look that is reminiscent of the decorative art of verre églomisé - a difficult, almost extinct, technique mastered by the French in the 18th century.

Product Usage Recommendations

- All vertical, dry indoor applications.

Installation and Maintenance Guidelines

- Install per manufacturer's instructions. Specific cutting instructions included in manufacturer's installation instructions.
- Do not butt joint glass. Glass expands and contracts and will crack if butt jointed.
- Use non-sanded grout if grout is desired.
- Clean with non-abrasive, non-acidic neutral cleaner or glass cleaner.
