ANN SACKS® UNVEILS LUX DECORATIVE

PORTLAND, Ore. (January 20, 2015) – Making its ANN SACKS debut this season is Lux Decorative, an intricate marble tile inspired by the elaborate solid bronze doors that graced the entryways of ancient mosques. The exclusive 16”x16” tiles are the latest in the ANN SACKS’ Lux series, and feature three designs: Relais, Sultan, and Riad, offered in three warm metallic colorways: Silver, Gold, and, Pewter.

The complex Lux Decorative designs are created by taking smooth marble stone and incorporating a raised, highly detailed design that reflects traditional Moroccan motifs. The rich color is hand-leafed in Old World tradition, its soft reflective qualities creating a lit-from-within effect when light plays across its surface.

Relais in Pewter

Sultan in Silver

Riad in Gold

Appropriate for almost all indoor, dry vertical applications, it is an ideal choice for walls, fireplace surrounds, bars, and other statement-making installations. Lux Decorative comes sealed to protect the rich surface colorations, and although not suggested for wet applications, it would be appropriate for areas such as backsplashes.
