ANN SACKS® UNVEILS SIENE AND VISCONTE FLOOR DESIGNS

PORTLAND, Ore. (January 20, 2015) – Two new stone floor tiles – Siene and Visconte – were introduced by ANN SACKS, expanding this important category with designs reminiscent of Old World French parquet flooring. Grand scale in approach, with all the demarcations and well-worn beauty of centuries-old traveled stones, Siene and Visconte create atmosphere and romance whether gracing an impressive foyer or entryway or lending warmth and character to a well-appointed kitchen, or outdoor veranda or entertainment area.

Siene

Visconte

Expertly hand-cut, Siene and Visconte are hand-worked and hand-finished to achieve the Old World, honed appeal of antique flooring. Siene is a rustic black marble, its soft coloration mottled with cream and deep black. In contrast, Visconte is crafted from white marble, with intense and varied gray-green veining. The in-stock series is exclusive to ANN SACKS with Siene available in 6”x6” and 16”x16” field sizes, and an 8”x24” Pike field, and Visconte available in an 8”x46” Picket field, a 7” Triangle, and an 8”x27” Trapezoid. The tiles can be purchased together to form the overall pattern but the tiles are more...
