EROS GREY MAKES ITS DEBUT AT ANN SACKS

PORTLAND, Ore. (July 1, 2015) – ANN SACKS continues to move the mark with its diverse marble selection with the introduction of Eros Grey. An altogether unique marble that displays incredible movement appearing almost linear in approach. This beautiful deep gray-to-black stone resonates with layers of complementing shades of gray and stark white markings and spider veins not been seen by ANN SACKS in today's marketplace. Eros Grey has the ability to effectively translate to traditional or contemporary settings, with its unique stone variation and demarcations. It is competitively priced and in-stock availability add up to a marble of reckoning from every angle.

Eros Grey is available in 16"x16", 12"x24" fields and 30"x72" slabs. Visually captivating for any installation, from floors and walls to fireplaces and backsplashes, including outdoor applications subject upon method of installation. Marble does require sealing with a penetrating sealant at the time of installation and should be occasionally cleaned and resealed to keep the marble's innate beauty enduring for years to come.
