ANN SACKS MIXARE COLLECTION – COMBINATIONS TO TRANSFORM ANY SPACE

PORTLAND, Ore. (January 10, 2017) – ANN SACKS’ latest porcelain finds include Mixare, a unique tile collection that skillfully pairs geometric shapes with a complementing neutral palette of cool and warm tones, and optional metal angle liners to define the tiles crisp lines for a skillful visual presentation. Mixare features a 8.5”x9.8” hexagon and solid 3”x12” wall field tile with a gentle undulating surface texture in a neutral palette of Ivory, Sand, Silver, and Taupe, with the angle liners offered in Bronze, Copper, Gold or Silver.

Mixare’s porcelain composition makes it an excellent choice whether selected for commercial or residential projects, with its easy maintenance, durable performance and pure color that will not fade or stain. Comprised of two designs in a range of colors, Mixare hails from Italy and contains 21 percent recycled material. When employing the metal liners instead of standard grout, it creates a cool, modern vibe accentuating the tiles’ graphic lines.

The Mixare collection is part of the ANN SACKS competitive in-stock program and suitable for indoor wall and floor applications as well as outdoor use subject to method of installation. The Mixed Decorative hexagon is sold by the box in a random assortment for the Silver and Taupe Mix or Ivory and Sand Mix.
