ANN SACKS SARTO PRESENTS A FASHIONABLE STATEMENT IN TILE TAILORED FOR TODAY'S LIFESTYLES

PORTLAND, Ore (January 10, 2017) – ANN SACKS introduces Sarto, a porcelain tile that takes its cues from men's haute couture. This inspired representation reflects the intricacy of fine woven cloth with a chic color palette for a sophisticated persona. Made in Italy, artists employ ink jet technology to achieve the tile's blurring weave of colors and slightly raised, textured nub mimicking the appearance and composition of loomed fabric.

Beyond its statement-making qualities, its porcelain composition is 20 percent consumer recyclable content and has the strength, pure retention of color, and stain and etching endurance to be an optimum choice for any large scale commercial or residential flooring or wall installation.

The textural quality of the pattern creates a skid-resistant surface to work well within a bathroom, kitchen or foyer. Sarto also has the personality to bring a tailored elegance to backsplashes and fire surrounds. The handsome menswear design is offered in 6"x24" and 24"x24" field tiles, a herringbone and two-inch straight mosaic in Bianco, Gregio and Saba colorways.
