

Reveal

A tile of exceptional depth of color and dimensional luster that employs the stained glass industry technique of through-color-glass. Unlike many mirrored tiles, which can appear cold and flat, Reveal has an undulating surface of ripples, folds and random inclusions and markings. The transformation occurs as the color goes through the tile during the annealing process, giving the tile face textural, organic beauty. Once finished, the tile is hand-cut, with sides softly sanded. Reveal is an ecologically sound choice, crafted from 72 percent post-consumer recycled glass.
