ANN SACKS® BUILDS UPON ITS TRADITIONAL PORCELAIN CATEGORY WITH LOS JARDINES

PORTLAND, Ore. (September 22, 2014) – Rounding out ANN SACKS’ Fall 2014 introductions, is Los Jardines, a three tile series handcrafted in Spain. Los Jardines, which means “Garden” in Spanish, is designed to evoke the warmth and timeless beauty of well-worn encaustic tiles, yet is crafted from porcelain for remarkable durability and long life.

The 12”x12” tiles are offered in three patterns: Gris, Azur, and Negro, each one distinctive from the other, yet all boast the ability to command attention no matter if used in vertical or horizontal applications. While reflecting all the imperfections and natural markings of encaustic concrete tiles, Los Jardines’ porcelain body provides all the advantages... impervious to stains and high traffic for almost maintenance-free upkeep, and pure color and patterning that will remain true over the years. Equally comfortable outdoors and in wet areas, Los Jardines will transform any living space at a competitive price point and with a quality that is hard to beat in today’s marketplace.

Founded in 1981, ANN SACKS has built its reputation with inspiring designs in tile, stone, plumbing, lighting and accessories. Based in Portland, Ore., the company is a division of the Kohler Co. Interiors Group, a wholly owned subsidiary of Kohler Co. Ann Sacks Tile and Stone, Inc., along with Kallista plumbing and Robern mirrored cabinetry and vanities
